Horizon Technology Finance Provides $15 Million Loan Facility to Bioness Medical

September 2, 2026

FARMINGTON, Conn.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Sep. 2, 2026-- Horizon Technology Finance Corporation (NASDAQ: HRZN) ("Horizon") (the "Company"), an affiliate of Monroe Capital, today announced it has provided a $15 million senior credit facility to Bioness Medical, Inc. ("Bioness"), with an initial $10 million funded at closing, and up to $5 million available to support Bioness's continued growth.

Bioness develops and commercializes FDA-approved neurorehabilitation technologies designed to improve mobility and function for individuals recovering from stroke, spinal cord injury, and other neurological conditions. Backed by Accelmed Partners, Bioness has established a leading position in the neurorehabilitation market through a portfolio of clinically validated products used across hospital, outpatient and home-based care settings.

"Providing flexible growth capital to innovative companies with proven business models and strong market positions is a core focus of Horizon's venture lending platform," said Paul Seitz, Chief Investment Officer of Horizon. "Our team has extensive experience partnering with healthcare and life sciences companies and delivering tailored financing solutions that help management teams execute on their growth objectives. Bioness is representative of the high-quality businesses we seek to support, and we are pleased to add another leading healthcare technology company to Horizon's portfolio. We look forward to continuing to deploy capital in support of innovative companies across our target markets."

"Horizon's deep understanding of the life sciences sector and ability to structure a financing solution tailored to our needs made them an attractive partner," said Todd Cushman, Co-Founder and Chief Executive Officer of Bioness. "This facility provides additional capital and flexibility as we continue investing in innovation, expanding our product portfolio and serving patients and healthcare providers around the world."
