"2014 was an important year for Horizon, as we significantly improved the strength and the credit quality of our investment portfolio," said Robert D. Pomeroy, Jr., Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Horizon. "During a period of increased competition in the venture lending market, our disciplined approach to originating high yielding loans and maintaining a diversified portfolio of venture loans enabled the Company to generate solid and consistent on-boarding yields while maintaining credit quality. Complementing our success in 2014, we experienced a record number of liquidity events from 18 portfolio companies, which further enhanced our portfolio yields."

Mr. Pomeroy continued, "The important strategic initiatives we implemented in the year resulted in Horizon entering 2015 in a strong position. We have significantly improved our portfolio's credit quality, lowered our cost of borrowing, filed an application for an SBIC license and further aligned our interests with shareholders through an adjustment to our investment advisory agreement. Going forward, we intend to draw upon our solid liquidity position to selectively pursue attractive new loan opportunities, while maintaining significant upside potential from our promising warrant portfolio."
